UConn Secure

The UCONN-SECURE network connects the UConn community with authenticated and encrypted access to the UConn wireless network. It provides users with full and secure access to university and internet resources.

Connecting to UConn-Secure requires an activated NetID and password.

Related Pages

- Connecting to the UConn-Secure Network on a Windows Phone
- Connecting to the UConn-Secure Wireless Network on Android
- Connecting to the UConn-Secure Wireless Network on Chromebook
- Connecting to the UConn-Secure Wireless Network on iOS
- Connecting to the UConn-Secure Wireless Network on Mac OSX
- Connecting to the UConn-Secure Wireless Network on Ubuntu Linux
- Connecting to UCONN-SECURE Wireless on Windows 7
- Connecting to UCONN-SECURE Wireless on Windows 10